Subject: Re: Water non household retail market opening: Formal consultation on changes to water company licences for market readiness and in area trading ban

Tim,

Thanks for the reminder. I looked at the consultation albeit somewhat sketchily because of the very wide brief I have at Cholderton. The 'in-area trading ban' is of no consequence to us and hence we do not have any comment. On the matter of the proposal to modify the conditions of an appointment and the conditions of a licence to meet the 'readiness condition', I decided that Cholderton's voice is so inconsequential that a response would carry little or no weight. To be frank, I am not sure of the implications and hope to have this explained when I go to MOSL on Wednesday.

Thank you again for contacting me,

Anthony Fry
