

Response received from Anglian Water Services Limited

We note the consultation on setting licence fees under the WSSL regime.

As the consultation questions focus on the discussion of how the 50% of the costs of regulating the new market which will be borne by WSSL licensees are to be recovered rather than the 50% by undertakers we have no substantive comments at this stage and expect WSSL retailers to lead the discussion on this.