

Guidance on Ofwat's approach to competition law in the water and wastewater sector in England and Wales: a consultation

We welcome Ofwat's guidance on competition law, and the opportunity to comment on the draft document. We feel that this guidance is a useful step forward to help understand Ofwat's role, make assessments on how competition law may be applied and to inform our internal policies.

We do not have any specific comments on the content of the guidance.