Hi all,

Our consultation on charging arrangements post 2020 has now been published on our website and you can find it here: <https://developers.thameswater.co.uk/new-connection-charging>.

On the link provided you will see a green box stating 'have your say', if you click on this it will open an editable PDF outlining our proposal- Please take the time to review this. Within the document you will see a series of questions which we are keen to get your feedback on. Please make any comments, save the document then email it to our research agency via developerservicesconsultation@addverve.com. You can do this until the consultation closes on Monday 30 September.

I will soon be on leave until Wednesday 18th September, therefore should you have any questions on this please contact [REDACTED] who will be able to assist.

Have a great weekend.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]
