

Corrigenda to South West Water's Outcomes performance commitment appendix that accompanied the notification of the determination by the Water Services Regulation Authority (Ofwat) of Price Controls for the period from 1 April 2020 to 31 March 2025

This notice contains minor corrections to the PR19 final determinations: South West Water – Outcomes performance commitment appendix that was published on 16 December 2019.

Version control

Version	Date of issue	Performance commitments with amendments
1.0	14 May 2020	PR19SWB_PC B9 (Compliance with sludge standard) PR19SWB_PC F6 (EPA)

Compliance with sludge standard

PR19SWB_PC B9

The detail for this performance commitment is set out on pages 67-69.

On page 68, in the 'Performance commitment definition and parameters' table for:

Specific exclusions	Exemptions are in line with the current EPA definition 'Environment Agency Environmental Performance Assessment (EPA) Methodology (version 3)' dated November 2017. In this version of the EPA (v3) the following exemptions are included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• solids added during the sludge treatment process, e.g. lime added during the treatment process;</li><li>• grit and screenings and water treatment sludge; and</li><li>• treatment related breaches that do not result in non-compliant sludges or residual products going to any outlets.</li></ul> Incineration is considered an 'outlet' for these purposes rather than a treatment.
----------------------------	--

Read:

Specific exclusions	Exemptions are in line with the current EPA definition 'Environment Agency Environmental Performance Assessment (EPA) Methodology (version 3)' dated November 2017. In this version of the EPA (v3) the following exemptions are included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• solids added during the sludge treatment process, e.g. lime added during the treatment process;</li><li>• grit and screenings and water treatment sludge; and</li><li>• treatment related breaches that do not result in non-compliant sludges or residual products going to any outlets.</li></ul> Incineration is considered an 'outlet' for these purposes rather than a treatment. This performance commitment does not apply to the Isles of Scilly until 2025.
----------------------------	---

EPA

PR19SWB_PC F6

The detail for this performance commitment is set out on pages 98-100.

On page 99, in the 'Performance commitment definition and parameters' table for:

Any other relevant information	NA
---------------------------------------	----

Read:

Any other relevant information	This definition may be subject to future refinement and updates by the Environment Agency and as such may be superseded during the period 2020-25. The company will comply with whichever is the most current version of this definition, as used by the Environment Agency, to define the star rating each year for this performance commitment.
---------------------------------------	---

