

Variation of Independent Water Networks Limited's appointment to include Nansledan, Newquay

On 11 January 2023, Ofwat began a consultation on a proposal to vary Independent Water Networks Limited's (“Independent Water Networks”) appointment to become the water provider for a development in South West Water Limited's (“South West Water”) water supply area called Nansledan, Newquay (“the Site”). Details of the application and our assessment of it were set out in the consultation document.

The consultation ended on 13 February 2023. During the consultation period, we received a representation from one organisation, which is summarised in Section 1 of this document.

We will only make an appointment or variation if our assessment concludes that the application meets the criterion it has been made under; that customers or future customers on the Site will be no worse off than if the Site had been served by the existing appointee; and if the applicant will be able to finance the proper carrying out of its functions as a water company. As set out in our consultation we are satisfied this is the case. The response we have received to the consultation has not changed that view.

Having assessed Independent Water Networks' application and having taken account of the response we received to our consultation, we decided to grant a variation to Independent Water Networks' area of appointment to allow it to serve the Site for water services. This appointment became effective on 22 February 2023.

The Variation Notice legally making the variation can be found in Section 3 of this document.

1. Responses received to the consultation

We received a response to our consultation from one organisation: South West Water.

South West Water

South West Water confirmed that it is aware that Independent Water Networks Limited proposes to offer a 2.5% discount against South West Water's charges and acknowledges that Independent water Networks offers a discount for those who pay by direct debit and take up e-billing. South West Water note that there is no impact on the water bills for customers. South West Water confirmed it does not have any objection to proposal to grant the variation.

We considered this response before making the decision to vary Independent Water Networks' appointment.
